Rules:

Contest runs from August 1st to August 31st. Enter the contest by ordering a burger at any of the six MMH restaurants (Lamberts, Perla's, Elizabeth Street Cafe, Clark's, Josephine House, & Jeffrey's) and requesting a punch card from your server. Present your identification and a server will fill in guest's name, email address and date issues.

Punch cards include six places for a stamp corresponding to all six restaurant's burgers. Your punch card will arrive stamped in the corresponding area to the burger you have ordered. Guest is responsible for keeping punchcard and bringing it to the remaining five restaurants to be stamped, as well as for requesting the stamp. Upon completion of sixth burger, guest will ask server to stamp sixth and final area and to date card with completion date. Guest will then turn card into the server. Guests must provide valid I.D. to receive each stamp.

All cards will be collected and counted by MMH on Tuesday, September 1st and participants will be emailed to collect their prizes by Friday, September 4th.

Prize levels are not cumulative: participants who eat all six burgers in a week are not additionally entitled to prizes given to participants who eat all six burgers in a month. The Grand Prize winner, however, will be entitled to additional prizes at the discretion of MMH.

MMH employees are disqualified from participation.

By entering this contest, you hereby agree to abide by the above rules and regulations.
